Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is faint and illegible due to fading and the age of the paper.

Miss Annie a wish this wish of mine yes it shall be a wish warm from my heart A loving one dear friend for the I love and cheer thy heart

And more dear girl I wish the more Than this poor world can give I wish for the when life is over At home where angels live Mrs. S. B. Smith

Miss Anna

The life which you possess are given to you from above may it all the time be watered from the dews and blessings of Heaven is a wish of your Father

For. Amie.

Hope, and heart place, for Amie,

Heart is a hope-place, and home is a heart-place, and she is sadly mistaken who would exchange the happiness of home for anything less than heaven.

Yours Dear Mother,

Miss Anna

May peace be ^{around} the wherever thou rovest
May life be to thee as one summers day
And all that thou wishest ^{and} all that thou lovest Come smiling around thy bright sunny way

Mrs S. Hemmon.

^{Miss Anna}
There are four things that come not back
The spoken word the sped arrow the past life and the neglected opportunity I keep this in mind and lay the foundation of a happy and useful life

Full many a gem of purest ray serene,
The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear,
Full many a flower to blossom unseen,
And waite its sweetness on the dearest air.

The Diamond is the brightest gem.
That's found within the earth's embrace True friendship is a brighter gem
And in the heart its mine is placed
