As over the keys you run your fingers,
While into the past-memory strays and lingers,
Forget not the times and the happy hours,
When we practiced together,
Or braved the weather,
To meet at the "Mozart,"
And bear our part!
In that merry musical club of ours.

May your life be a University with just Greek and Latin enough to make it earnest, Potany enough to strew your path with flowers, music
so that you may not forget "Technique", and "Mozart's" enough to keep the members of our club in your mind.

" Like as a plank of driftwood,"
Tossed on the watery main;
Another plank encounters,
Meets, touches, parts again;
Thus it is with us forever,
On life's unrusting sea.
We meet, and greet, and sever,
" Drifting eternally. "

You trudge as some man's wife,
May you ever as humble remain
As the day you carried the chains.

Miss Eddy—

There are spots that bear no flowers—
Not because the soil is bad.

But that summer's gentle showers
Never made their bosoms glad.

Better have an act that's kindly,
Treated sometimes with disdain,
Than by judging others blindly
Down the innocent to pain.

Ever your Friend

My kind friend:—

It gives me great pleasure to list as one of your friends; short has been our acquaintance but very pleasant it has proved. Our many lessons taken in class together in '85 will be looked back upon with great pleasure by me. though at times our Prof. deemed it necessary that crusades and jeuilles were not just the things for class. May your life be crowned with success and happiness. is the earnest wish of your true friend and classmate
